Profile of American Pet Owners

The American Pet Products Manufacturers Association (APPMA) 2008 National Pet Owners Survey revealed that:

- 45.6 million U.S. households (39%) include dogs
- The income level of pet-owning households is 25% higher than other U.S. households

Of the more than 1,000 renters who responded to a recent Apartments.com survey:

- Nearly 90% have pets
- More than 80% said a pet-friendly policy played a major role in where they chose to live

The return on investment for a pet-friendly property:

- At least 1 in 2 renters has pets
- Tenants with dogs will stay longer because they have fewer available options than non-pet owners
- Higher rental value
- Pet deposits
- Pet rent
- Tenant loyalty
